He will go over to Bryantsville this afternoon to visit his brother, Dr. W. M. Elliott.—Danville Advocate.

A. C. Dunn and Tom Barr were thrown from a buggy near Wilmore Saturday night and badly hurt. The injuries of Dunn are thought to be fatal. Barr was formerly a salesman for the Hagan Gas Engine Co.—Winchester Democrat.

A Jolly Crowd.

Two Lexington Auto-trucks carrying 65 people stopped in town Saturday afternoon and attracted a large crowd. They were a merry party from Hanly, consisting of a base ball team and their followers, many of whom were ladies. They went out to Hyattsville where they played the team of that place, the result being 3 to 1 in favor of Hanly.

Fire In The County.

The home of Mr. Grant Hammond on the Fall Lick pike about seven miles from town, the old Jesse Fox home, burned together with its contents, on Sunday night the 3d inst. The origin of the fire is unknown. Mr. Hammond was away from home at the time. He carried $1500. insurance on the house and $500. on the furniture.

Mr. Morrow's Speech.

Hon. Edwin P. Morrow of Somerset spoke at the court house Friday afternoon to a large audience, a liberal sprinkling of ladies being present. Mr. Morrow is an eloquent and forceful speaker and presented his case in a very logical manner, from his standpoint, Mr. Morrow is very popular in this county, where he has relatives and many friends.

Creechius, candidate for Secretary of State will head a delegation of 500 from Pendleton county.

Corn Sells At $2.00.

At the public sale held by Mr. Malcome Aldridge at Marksburg, in Garrard county, last Saturday week, corn sold at $2. per barrel in the field. Corn is starting off much lower in price than was at first anticipated.—Danville Advocate.

The Advocate was misinformed in regard to the price paid for this corn. The lowest price paid was $2.81 in the field, and ranged up to $3.00. There is no $2. corn in this county, $2.50 being freely offered and no sales at that price.

The Walker Sale.

At the sale of personalty of the late T. B. Walker on Saturday afternoon the following prices were realized:—Landlord's share one field 20 acres corn in field $17.10 per acre, same in one field of 50 acres $12.50 per acre; baled hay 17.70 per ton; baled oats $21.21 per ton. John Walker purchased a team of mules for $200. and the old family horse for $67.50; James I. Hamilton a team of mules for $227. and a draft mare for $125; T. B. Robinson one bay mare 8 years old for $105; John Conn a draft mare for $139.50; J. S. Johnson Sr. two milk cows for $40. each. Machinery and farming tools including 35 hemp brakes brought good prices.

Much Building In Progress.

Lancaster is experiencing somewhat of a building boom. Messrs Theo Curry and L. G. Davidson have in course of construction nice residences on Richmond street. Mr. W. S. Carrier has completed a nice house adjoining his home on Danville street. Mr. W. B. Moss is erecting a cottage on the lot adjoining his home on Lexington street. Mr. S. G. Haselden has commenced building on the lot adjoining the Powell store room on Depot street. Mr. Dave Sanders contemplates the building of a home in the near future, and several others have in view the building of homes before the advent of cold weather. At this rate the cry of no available houses will soon be a thing of the past in Lancaster.

Tobacco Crop Good.

The farmers are busy housing their first cutting of tobacco, it is good, and the late tobacco will be exceptionally good. All complaints heard about the recent drought are forgotten, and if properly handled, Garrard county will have the best quality of tobacco raised in years. The agitation for a "cut-out" in the latter part of 1910 and the beginning of this year had a tendency to decrease the acreage in this county, many growers putting out only about one half of what they originally intended to raise. The large crops of recent years caused the building of many large barns, and as a result there will be no complaint as to the lack of room for the proper handling of the crop, and the proper curing and handling should necessarily follow.

Real Estate Sale.

Mrs. J. C. Robinson has purchased of Mr. Henry Sinden his residence on Richmond Street for $1200. The sale was effected through the real estate firm of Hughes & Swinebroad.

Special Term Of Court.

Judge Walker held a special term of the Garrard Circuit Court Saturday for the purpose of hearing some motions and entering of orders in civil cases. Judge Walker began the regular term of the Boyle Circuit Court on Monday.

Liquor Election For Lincoln County.

Petitions are in circulation in Lincoln county, and it said they will be presented to the county Judge in the near future, asking that the sense of the people be taken on December 18th as to whether or not saloons shall be reopened in Lincoln county. At the last election held in that county four years ago the county voted dry by a majority of over 1200 votes.

Mercer Will Vote On Question Of Court House Bonds.

A proposition to submit to the people of Mercer county the question as to whether or not they shall issue bonds to the amount of $50,000. for the purpose of building a new court house was passed by the Fiscal court of that county by a vote of 4 to 2. The court house was recently condemned by Judge Walker and the county has rented the Opera house where court will be held until the completion of a court house is effected.

Former Lancaster Man Shot.

Somerset, Ky., Sept. 8.—Chief of Police Henry Waddell, while trying to arrest John Pennington, a machinist, this morning, was forced in self defense to shoot Pennington, who resisted arrest. Three shots took effect and Pennington is not expected to live.

A few hours previous Pennington had fired a shotgun at policeman John Waddell, a brother of the chief, and fifty small shot took effect in his foot, which will possibly have to be amputated. Chief Waddell was endeavoring to arrest Pennington for this offense.

The above press dispatch sent out from Somerset probably has reference to Johnnie Pennington, who formerly lived in Lancaster, moved to Corbin where he learned the machinists trade and has since been employed at the Q & C shops in Somerset. He was a relative of Mr. William Partin and while here resided with Mr. Partin.

Woods-Patrick.

On Wednesday afternoon at 4:20 o'clock Miss Ethel Woods and Dr. H. J. Patrick of Paint Lick, Ky., were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Frierson at the Presbyterian church at Manse, only a few relatives being present. Both the young people are very popular and have many friends who wish them well. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Earnest Woods who is one of the most prominent business men of this county. She is very attractive and Dr. Patrick is to be congratulated upon winning the heart and hand of such a charming young lady. The groom is a popular young dentist and has been practicing his profession at Paint Lick for the past two years and has met with much success. He moved to Paint Lick from Paintsville, Ky., and has made a host of friends among Garrard county people. While it was known that they were friends it was not known that the wedding would occur so soon and so closely did they guard their secret that it was a surprise to many. They are at home at the residence of the groom in Paint Lick. The Record joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life.

For Representative.

Mr. William Jesse Baird of the Union precinct of this county announces himself as a candidate for the republican nomination to represent Garrard County in the Legislature. The republicans will meet in convention at the court house on Saturday Sept. 23rd. for the purpose of selecting a candidate. Mr. Baird will prove a very popular candidate as he and his people are very prominent all over the county and especially so in the part of the county where they live. Mr. Baird is a son of the Rev. A. C. Baird, pastor of the Good Hope Church and is a young man of high honor and integrity. He is a graduate of Berea College and has been in charge of the tuberculosis car, which was in Lancaster during the Fair, for the past few months.

Young Mr. Baird and his elder brother and his Father are all republicans and have always had the best interest of the party at heart. He ask of the republicans of the county that they consider him for the place and if elected he promises to always have the best interest of the people at heart. Mr. Baird is heartily in favor of the County Unit extension law and is anxious that the state be redistricted.

The recent pitiable case of suffering and distress within our city brings forcibly to our minds the need of some kind of a charitable organization. It is true our town is small but the need is sufficient to justify the organization of something of the kind.

A Board of Charities should be organized, having a membership consisting of a representative of the county, the city, each of the churches, and also it would be a good idea to have upon the board of directors some of the good ladies to represent the various benevolent and religious societies which they maintain. They should be regularly organized, properly officered and with officers and offices easily accessible at all times. With an organization of this kind in existence, each and every case of distress and suffering could be quickly, quietly and thoroughly investigated, and if found worthy, relieved, and upon the other hand if not found worthy, or if found to be impostors, the proper steps could then be taken to prevent the people being imposed upon.

There is not a more charitable people to be found upon God's foot stool than we have right here in Lancaster, and if any worthy person suffers in our midst, it is because of the fact that their necessity has not been made known. Without some organized body whose duty it is to investigate such matters, it is a hard matter for those who need and seek assistance to know just to whom they should apply, and in many cases individuals are imposed upon by disreputable tramps, dope fiends and other unworthy parties, while people who really deserve alms are allowed to suffer.

In the manner above suggested a general fund could be established and maintained for emergency cases, our citizens would contribute liberally to such a fund, it could be placed in the hands of people who would handle it judiciously and discreetly, some place could be secured where cast off clothing and other articles which would be acceptable to the deserving poor could be deposited, and the board could distribute them to the best advantage. If necessary funds could be raised, not only by private subscription, but by collections at the various churches, "Home Missions" they might be termed, and in this manner a permanent fund could be established and maintained.

Under the present system of dispensing charity, whenever it becomes necessary to relieve any peculiarly distressing case, which requires a little more than the ordinary amount of funds &c., it becomes necessary for some one to take a subscription paper and go around and take up a collection to relieve the case in question. This places the full duty upon one or two persons, and also places the full burden upon a few. By the means suggested the cost could be divided among the entire town and no one would be made much the poorer.

Money cannot be better spent than for sweet charity's sake. This organization could easily and readily be made. Other towns have such a society, why should not we?

If some one will but take the initiative, before we are called upon to relieve another case of distress, there would be a Board of Associated Charities, or some such similar organization to whom the sufferer might apply and their wants be speedily relieved.

The fair meeting was not held Saturday, because of the fact that the Walker sale continued until so late that the county people were compelled to leave town as soon as it was over. Another meeting is called for Saturday afternoon, September 16th at the county court room at 2:30 o'clock, at which time it is hoped that every man in the county who is interested in the holding of a fair in Lancaster, which will be to the interest of the county at large, will attend.

This meeting is to be held for the exclusive benefit of the county people, to give them an opportunity to come in and confer with the town people, to express their views and desires as to the organization of a fair association which will have their interests in view. At the ringing of the court house bell it is hoped that a goodly number will assemble and that some steps may be taken toward effecting an organization. A fair association can and will be organized here in town without the least trouble, but the desire is to get the people of the county to go into it, and thus organize an association with stockholders throughout the county, which will be very much better for all concerned.

Judge O'Rear has forgotten to tell the voters just how he is going to jam through the Legislature all the various half-baked measures that are forming in his brain, when nineteen of the hold over senators, just one-half the Senate membership, are Democrats, and with the probability that the Democratic majority in both houses will be over one hundred. They have the votes in the Legislature to carry out the wishes of the people, expressed at the polls, and they have candidates who will redeem their platform pledges to the letter. If by any catastrophe O'Rear happened to be elected Governor, he would have to sit in the Governor's office for four years, and do nothing but suck his thumbs and appoint notaries public.

G. T. Crane, millionaire iron manufacturer, is out in a severe arrangement of the various universities of the country. He places Columbia at the head of the list with Harvard, Princeton and Cornell almost equally as bad. He estimates that 65 per cent of the students at these institutions combine in a mild degree wine and bad women, 35 per cent drink heavily and 45 per cent as having occasional spruces. Mr. Crane has spent considerable time and money in investigating conditions at the various institutions, and if the facts and figures given by him as a result be true, many parents will hesitate before sending their sons to these places of learning, especially if they will read Mr. Crane, detailed account of conditions prevailing there.

Following an examination by Secretary of State Bruner and one of his examiners, the Franklin Bank, a state bank of Louisville Ky. posted the following notice Monday evening:—"This bank will not be open for business tomorrow." The notice was signed by two of the bank's directors.

According to directors the bank's embarrassment is due to a slump in the value of traction stocks taken as collateral security. While the exact status of the institution is not yet known, it is estimated that the total loss will reach $150,000.

After thirteen days consumed in the trial of Henry Clay Beatty, Jr., at Chesterfield Court House, Va., a jury found him guilty and fixed his punishment at death in the chair. The crime with which Beatty stands charged is the murder of his wife. While out automobile riding on the night of July 18th he claims that she was shot by an unknown man. The state proved that Beatty killed his wife in order that he might continue illicit relations with a woman of the under world.

Whether we nominate Clark, Willson or Harmon for President, the Democrats will need the vote of Kentucky to capture the Presidency. Turning the State over to the Republicans this year, means that the whole power of the State administration will be used to give its vote to Taft next year. Every Democrat should stamp under the rooster in November with the assurance that he is lending material aid to his party at home and abroad.

Judge O'Rear wants the voters to forget that the Republicans, in Congress have broken every promise to the people, and that in Kentucky their administration of affairs has been extravagant and incompetent. He claims to be better than his party at home and abroad. O'Rear is so soaked in vanity that he really thinks he is a modern Moses, but he will have a hard time making the people believe it.

With only twenty two towns to hear from, which in 1907 only cast 385 votes the state of Maine voted to repeal the prohibition amendment in its constitution by a majority of 904 votes. Maine has been a dry state since 1857 when a statute was enacted prohibiting the sale of liquor in the state, and afterwards in 1884 a prohibitory amendment to the constitution was enacted.

When the farmers of Kentucky settle with the Sheriff, they will begin to realize what a Republican Administration can do for them when it tries. The raise of $61,000,000 in the assessed value of farm lands was the work of Governor Willson's Board of Equalization, and Judge O'Rear has no word of condemnation for this act of spoliation.

Governor Willson spent, in three years and a half over $270,000, on the State militia. Augustus is a warrior bold, and dearly loves to see his parlor soldiers march. The tax-payers have to foot the bills, but think of the joy that surges through Willson's martial heart, when he hears the bugle and the drum.

When Willson's administration fund itself in a hole, his Board of Equalization increased the farm lands of the State for assessment purposes $61,000,000. What has Judge O'Rear to say on this subject? He agrees with the Republican platform that Willson gave the tax-payers a wise and economical administration.

County Judge J. Percer Scott on Monday entered an order in the Fayette County Court for a vote at the regular November election on the Commission Form of Government for the city of Lexington.

The Mayor, the City Engineer and five members of the City Council of Gary, Indiana, have been arrested charged with having accepted a bribe in connection with a heating franchise.

Dr. Pearce has had kindest things to say of all our people and of all churches and will always remember their kindness.

New High Bridge Open.

The first trains on the Q & C system were run over the new high bridge Monday. The structure has been practically completed for some time but the railroad people desired to have even the minutest detail thoroughly tested and inspected before running trains over it. The structure cost in the neighborhood of a half million dollars and is in many respects the most remarkable feat of engineering ever attempted and is the highest bridge over a navigable stream in the world.

It is thirty-one feet higher than the old bridge being built on the same foundation and over the old structure, and the rails are 308 feet above low water mark in the Kentucky river. It was built within about two years, during which time trains were not stopped from running over the old bridge a single day.

The main span of the new structure is 1,230 feet long, and more than 7,000 tons of steel was used in its construction, while 138,500 steel bolts hold the framework together. It is designed to carry double tracks and will bear the heaviest trains now in use in the United States.

Another Theory As To Cause Of Pellagra.

Prof. H. Garman, entomologist for the Kentucky Experiment Station at Lexington, who has been in several eastern Kentucky counties studying various cases of Pellagra and seeking to discover its origin, has the following to say as to his researches:

"While I have not yet reached a definite conclusion, I am inclined to the belief that the disease is infectious, not from the opinion of physicians and other authorities who have been working with it that it is not contagious. "Investigations made by me on this trip tend to show that the disease is caused and disseminated by the inoculation of the patient. Whether this inoculation is from the germs known as the "buffalo gnat", I am unable yet to fully determine.

"This I do know, that within a short distance of the house where I found four cases of pellagra in one family I discovered several specimens of the buffalo gnat, two of the specimens alive and the others in a mummified state. They were found in the water and their proximity to these cases of pellagra tends to confirm the belief that they are responsible for the infection, through this I have not fully substantiated."

Prof. Garman says that he expects to make another trip to the same section soon for further investigation, and also to visit it again next spring to ascertain if pellagra conditions are affected by cold weather. He believes that if the origin of the disease can be determined and the conditions surrounding its dissemination understood pellagra can be stamped out."

space below this heading is for the exclusive use of our farmer subscribers, and is for the sale of stock, grain and such things on farm as the farmer cannot afford to advertise. No notice will be accepted over four lines, and will be only in two issues of the RECORD, free of charge.

FOR SALE—92 head of sheep for sale at a bargain. Tom Conn.

FOR SALE—Two Poland China Boars, weighing about 100 lbs. W. S. Enbry.

Capt. English Dunn sold 20 barrels corn at $4.00 to the Garrard Milling Co.

Fisher Herring bought a nice six year old harness mare of Ed Price for $210.

TRADE—I have a good bay two year old Naboth colt that I will trade for sheep or cattle. John A. Conn Jr.

LOST—Between Batson's store and toll-gate house on Lexington pike, a hand bag with pocket book in it. Mrs. Sam Cochran.

The recent rains have placed the ground in excellent condition for plowing, and during the interim before the heaviest part of the tobacco cutting and housing comes, farmers are doing much plowing for wheat.

Messrs Simon and Joseph Weil of Lexington, the well known cattle dealers, have purchased of Frank P. Bedford of Bourbon county his farm situated near Elizabeth station and containing 910 acres. The price was not made known but is approximately $100,000.

Of the catalogue stock at the Baughman sale in Stanford the following Garrard county people were purchasers: T. D. Chestnut of J. K. Baughman, one 4 year old horse for $165. Mr. Chestnut also bought a Wilkes mare of Forestus Reid for $140. W. B. Barton purchased a four year old sorrel mare of M. H. Beasley for $220.

Cloud King, a saddle stallion, valued at $7,500, in the stable of B. F. Herriott, at Paris evidently became frightened in his stable and was making a great fuss when Mr. Herriott opened the stable door. The horse rushed out of his stall into the lot and fell dead. He was seven years old and was quite successful in the showing.

Six years ago Mr. W. K. Cardwell purchased a Shetland pony from Mr. Davis Witherspoon for $65. From this mare he has sold colts to the amount of $225 and has four at this time, from the same mare, that he can sell for $500. This is what the Dutchman would call one hundred per cent, ain't it. Harrodsburg Herald.

Major Rod Warfield returned home yesterday morning from Wellington, Kansas and other Western points, where he has been for the past month buying mules. During his stay there he purchased no less than five carloads, costing him a handsome sum. He left 56 head at Wellington for his son, Jack to feed, and the remainder of the lot is being shipped here. E-Town News.

W. B. Burton shipped on Tuesday to the Wilson Live Stock Co. of Wilson N. C. a car load of stock consisting of 16 horses, 4 to 6 years old, which cost him on an average $170 per head and 8 mare mules, 4 to 6 years old which cost him $190 a head on an average. This is the first shipment made this season to this firm, who are regular buyers on this market, and the stock was exceptionally nice, the horses all being nice harness animals.

The following purchases of stock were made by Garrard county people at Baughman's sale in Stanford on last Thursday and Friday:—W. B. Burton, one 5 yr old mare mule $255 and one horse mule for $165; Ashby Arnold 25 head of feeding cattle at $46.75 per head and George Ruble 250 head of sheep at prices ranging from $4 to $4.30 per head; six bucks at from $6.75 to $15 each, the low prices being for buck lambs. Mr. Ruble also purchased three bulls for $25, $30.50 and $34.50 each.

Do you raise sunflowers? Do you know that one Garrard county farmer was compelled to cut this rapidly spreading flower from 70 acres of land which its ravages would have rendered useless. Sunflowers planted in the yard and garden for ornamental purpose, if allowed to go to seed and drop their seed will multiply so rapidly, their size decreasing with years until they will be the size of the Kansas variety and will soon take a farm. Kill them as you would a Canada thistle.

Mr. Monte Fox, of this city, purchased this week from Mr. T. D. Chenault, of Madison county, 200 head of 1,500 pound cattle. Price 6 1/2 cents per pound. Taylor & Bottom sold to Richard Cobb and Son, 20 700-pound steers for 4 1/2 cents per pound. Same sold to Myers & Tucker 15 800-pound steers for $465, also sold to J. D. Whitehouse 15

Forced To Leave Home.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs, are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. There's a better way. Let Dr. King's New Discovery cure you at home. "It cured me of lung trouble," writes W. R. Nelson, of Clamine, Ark., "when all else failed and I gained 47 pounds in weight. Its surely the king of all cough and lung cures." Thousands owe their lives and health to it. It's positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds, La-Grippe, Asthma, Croup—all Throat and Lung troubles. 50c & $1.00. Trial bottle free at R. E. McRoberts & Son. 1-m steers at 4c per pound.

Mr. Will Lills d sold to A. F. Hundley 20 1000 lb cattle at an average of 5 cts. He also sold to Jack Hugueley 22 at 4 1/2 and shipped a car load to the city market. Danville Advocate.

The mule market in Paris court day was unusually slow, only a small supply on the market, and they being snapped up at prices ranging from $150 to $200. Bert McClintock and W. G. McClintock were the principal buyers.

The highest price that has ever been realized by local dealers for cleaned blue grass seed was paid this week in Paris when the market reached the unheard of and lofty figure of $3.10 per bushel for fancy cleaned Kentucky blue grass seed, in car load lots. One Paris dealer recently shipped a car of seed for which he received more than $9,000, while another disposed of a car load at $7,449.49.

A single buyer in the county is said to have on hand more than $175,000 worth of Blue Grass seed, which was bought uncleaned at prices ranging from $1 to $1.75. Bourbon News.

A WORD WITH WOMEN.

Valuable Advice For Lancaster Readers.

Many a woman endures with noble patience the daily misery of backache, pains about the hips, blue nervous spells, dizziness and urinary disorders, hopeless of relief because she doesn't know what is the matter.

It is not true that every pain in the back or hips is trouble "peculiar to the sex." When the kidneys get congested and inflamed, there are many such aches and pains and the whole body suffers.

You can tell it is kidney trouble if the secretions are dark colored, contain sediment; the passages are too frequent or scanty. Then help the weakened kidneys. They can't get well alone.

Doan's Kidney Pills have brought sound backs and new life and strength to thousands of suffering women. They are enforced by thousands—endorsed at home—Read this Lancaster woman's convincing statement:

Mrs. B. F. Walter, Hill St., Lancaster, Ky., says: "I never fail to praise Doan's Kidney Pills when I have the opportunity. I have never been without a supply of this remedy in the house for years and whenever my back becomes lame and painful, a few doses always bring prompt relief. For some time I suffered from kidney trouble. The kidney secretions were unnatural and I knew that my kidneys were disordered. At that time it was my good fortune to hear of Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a supply at Frisbie's Drug Store. Through their use my kidneys were restored to a normal condition."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents Foster-Millburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. 1-m
